

Building Comprehensive Specialty Workspaces.

Custom truck bodies built to your exact specifications
by Kentucky
Truck Body!

Custom mobile work environment with all the capability and comfort of brick and mortar

Sliding windows allow natural light and visibility to outside conditions

HVAC and insulation systems for all-weather operation

Liftgate provides capacity to transfer heavy or bulky items

Designed with safety and efficiency in mind

Doors and steps offer a safe and secure workspace

Multiple floor surface options to match your use

Access

Side and rear door options with emergency exit hardware and slip resistant steps provides easy and safe access

Options that enhance your productivity

Generator provides reliable interior power and easy exterior maintenance access

Interior and exterior work lighting for 24/7 demand and safety

Cabinets and counters afford valuable storage and a durable engineered workspace

Exterior graphics showcase your brand to desired markets

Custom Interior

Maximizes available productive, climate-controlled interior workspace while employees enjoy a safe environment out of the elements

Features that extend your vehicle's life

Chassis suspension modifications to accommodate permanent equipment upgrades such as a generator or heavy equipment and liftgate

Undercoat extends vehicle life protecting against corrosion

